

Do I need any immunisations or malaria tablets?

You will need to book a visit to your GP, ideally 2-3 months before your departure. They will be able to give you the latest advice and information.